Note: Prices are determined from Saskatchewan auction marts' reports of sale results from Thursday of the previous week to Thursday of the current week. N.A. means not available due to lack of sufficient data.

Canfax reported that a total of 9,153 head of cattle were sold in Saskatchewan this week, down from 10,556 head marketed the previous week.

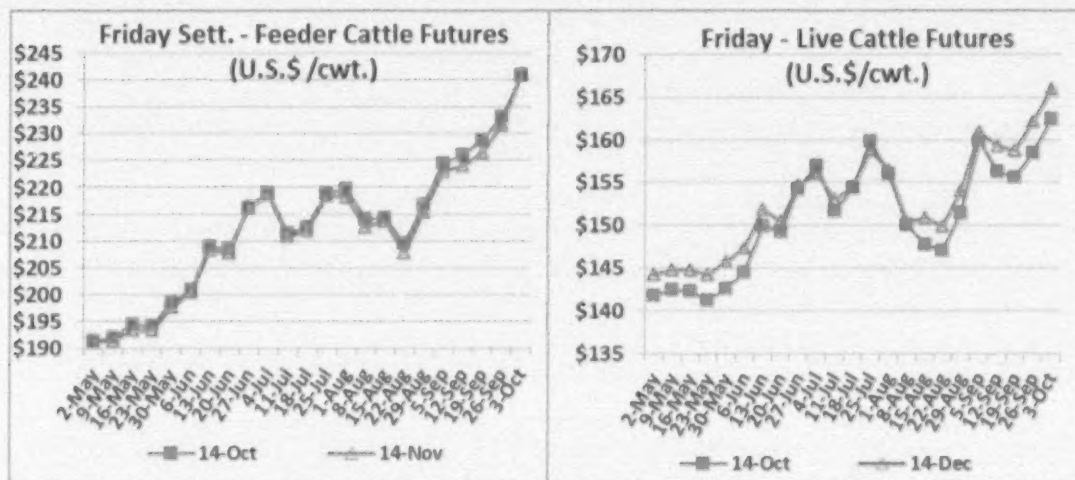

Saskatchewan feeder steer prices were mostly higher over the week. Saskatchewan feeder steer prices ranged from $0.62 per cwt lower to $8.48 per cwt higher over the week. The biggest gain over the week was in the 700-800 lb. weight category, while the 300-500 lb. weight categories had some small losses over the week. Feeder steers in the 500-900 lb. weight categories established new all-time high record prices over the week.

Saskatchewan feeder cattle prices were primarily higher over the week with continued tight feeder cattle supplies and strong feeder cattle demand supported by new all-time high record feeder cattle futures prices. The Canadian dollar also helped Canadian cattle prices as the Canadian dollar continued to weaken against the U.S. dollar, closing Friday below 89 cents.

The Saskatchewan 750 lb. feeder steer basis compared to the October 2, 2014 U.S. feeder cattle index at US$236.42 per cwt was calculated at -$18.30 per cwt (US$236.42/0.8882 -$247.88), a basis widening of $0.61 per cwt from -$17.69 per cwt on September 25, 2014.

Feeder cattle futures prices moved higher over the week with big gains on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, with price limits up on Wednesday. Prices surged passed the previous week on all future month contracts, establishing new all-time high record prices. The October contract increased US$7.775 per cwt over the week to settle Friday at US$240.875 per cwt, while the November contract increased US$9.375 per cwt to settle Friday at US$240.975 per cwt.
